Intro Section

Gather round and listen to the music
Focus in and hear a girl's honest choice to share her voice
Cuz she's been hiding herself from this whole wide world for so long now...mmhm
And she's finally got the courage to perform her song

Verse 1

Eight o'clock on a Friday night
Middle school talent show
I walked out in a sparkly, blue wig and little did you know
Well I was nervous that night but it ended up all right
This shy girl finally found her spotlight
And you said

Chorus

Sing your song
Sing it loud
Sing it proud
Sing it out
Sing your song now

Bridge

Now's the time to let your colors shine
To count in your own time, to capture your own rhyme
Don't look back; stay on track
Sing your song

Verse 2

Drowned by insecurities
Didn't want to stand out
I used to dream one day I'd wake up and be part of the popular crowd
But after middle school, the mean girls cease their rule
Now they just look like fools
You told me

Chorus
